

NATURALIZED YARD

This naturalized area provides important habitat for biodiversity! Rewilding our yard supports healthy ecosystems and builds climate resilience. Unlike traditional lawns, it doesn't need regular watering, fertilizers, or pesticides. Our yard provides life's necessities for local wildlife, improves soil health, holds and slows stormwater, and enhances biodiversity.

Let nature flourish: Rewild your yard for biodiversity – birds, butterflies, bees, and more!

